Luke Harrowfield. Not too many names could rival that one for influence at our beloved club over the last 20 years. 'Bulldog' this week suits up for his 250th RMFL league game, qualifying him for RMFL Life Membership and will soon hit that same mark in Imperial league games as well. The embodiment of an Imperial.

We also have a fellow west coaster, Daniel Girdham, playing in his 200th League game for the club. Girdy, who is often seen running onto the oval last on match days, makes up for his lack of pace with sheer determination and skill. He has been a mighty warrior for this great club during his two stints in the double blue.

Congratulations to you both.

A huge thankyou to all who helped host the association game at Johnstone Park last weekend on such short notice, it ended up being a great showcase for the club.

Onto the footy and we welcome Taillem Bend here for what should be a great day of football. The league boys will be raring to get back onto the winners list after a minor slip up in tricky conditions last game, whilst Tommy's reserves will also be smarting after being scored against last outing.

We have a great night planned in 2 weeks, after the Mypo game with Bogan Bingo, so get booking. Full details over the page.

As always, GO YOU BLUES!

Mitch's Musing

Fun fact; June 18 is my favourite date of the year. Milestones for the two old slow boys Griz and Dog. Reserves will once again be without their fearless leader McLaren. Went too hard on the mid season trip away.. still recovering apparently. Good chance for J. Clarke to fill a void with a couple key mids out the A grade side. Lost his captaincy this year and didn't make the association team. Ah well. Head up big fella. Anyone seen my clubs after the players golf day? Let me know..

Help Needed...

To all families and friends of Imps, the club desperately needs people to help with the BBQ shed please, otherwise we might not be able to run it. We need someone to oversee the roster and the running of the BBQ shed. We need people to supervise a shift whether it is 1 shift or a couple that would be greatly appreciated. If you see "1 person needed" on the roster reminders, even if you could spare an hour to help that would be fantastic!!! We desperately need help in the 3 to 5 timeslot. So if you and a couple of mates would like to do 1 shift at that time please let us know what week you'd like to do, your choice.

Netball News

Today we welcome the Tailem Bend netball club to our courts for the second time this season.

Coming off of the long weekend break everyone will be eager to get back into it.

We wish to extend a huge congratulations to our Blues girls who represented the RMNA at Country Championships over the weekend, it's such a great experience for all involved.

Indii Garrett, Taylor Lienert and Lucinda Temby played in the 11&U division.

Amelia DeMichele, Yasmin Harrowfield, Zoe Michalik and Jemma Zadow were in the 13&U division. Along with Olivia Bolt who was the team manager for this grade – a huge thank you for this. The 13's made the division 1 quarter finals.

In the 15's was Abby Harrowfield and Mia Perriman who made the grand final in division 2 and were runners up – a huge congratulations.

In the 17's we had Georgia DeMichele and Olivia Eldridge, these girls made the division 1 semi final.

A massive congratulations to all.

A huge thank you also to Kim DeMichele for coordinating the umpires for the weekend too – a huge task and it is so appreciated. We also want to thank Caitlin Michalik for stepping up and umpiring over the weekend also, well done Caitlin!

Turning to today's matches and it is expected to be a very exciting day of netball with some tight clashes to be expected. Be sure to head over to the courts when you can to cheer on our Blue girls.

Let's have a great day of netball

Lets go you blues!
