Last minor round game for the year, and what a season it has been. First of all congratulations to all of our sides, after a successful year in all grades, Imperials are once again back on top of the prestigious Lyall Parker Trophy, the award for the best club of the year. Nothing separating Imps and Jervois on the ladder and today we watch them fight it out for the minor premiership. Scott and the boys are looking to continue their strong form after thrashing the 3rd placed Taillem last week, well done to the boys on bringing home the very special Leahy-Kneebone Cup. The late season inclusion of Sturt Retiree Jack Penfold has been huge for the blues, an experienced player with a bit of toe and bunch of class, can he play another big game and help the blues secure that top spot over the defending premiers.

The reserves have sowed up top spot with a week to go, with a play style reminiscent of the 97/98 Camrys, it is beautiful to watch and not tough to see why they are clear flag favourites. We don't have Andrew McLeod, but James McLaren roaming the flanks isn't far off, after having 45 and 2 snags last week, blues news sources say he will again front up, his foot has been on ice since Saturday while receiving leather poisoning treatment. Goodluck to all of the Imperials sides, all in the finals with big chances to take home a flag. Lets get as many supporters to the finals series and cheer our boys home, Go you blues!!!

Colts Corner

Don't forget U/12's RMFL Carnival tomorrow, Sunday the 21st at Mannum Oval. 9.30am Start, get along and support our future stars!!

The RMFL Junior Medal Counts for U16 & U18s livestream on RMFL TV, Wednesday 7th of September from 7pm.

The Under 14's, 16's and 18s combined presentation evening Friday 23rd of September from 6.30pm.

Finally, a huge effort from all of our colts teams so far this season, they have all secured the double chance with the U14s securing top spot, The under 16s, depending on todays result could also win the minor premiership. The 18s might just fall short of top spot, but with momentum rolling their way, they are going to be tough to stop this finals series.

Goodluck to all of our sides in the Finals! Go you BLUES!!

Meet our New Player

JACK

Mitch's Musing

Jervois again. Good test. What a performance last week was. Penfold and Sambo know how to footy. Marto kicking a goal was the highlight.

Give us more on the celebration next time. Vanilla greece has been rucking well. Any danger of winning a coin toss though champ. You're 3-13 this year by my record. Hopefully port can send off Robbie Gray with a loss. Mit out. Hopefully back in 2023. This is fun.

Netball News

Here we are at the last minor round of season 2022 and we welcome the Jervois Netball Club to our courts today. What a great season it has been so far and we are incredibly proud of all of our Blues players, coaches, managers, pcp's, supporters and volunteers. We couldn't get out on court each week without everyone doing their bit so a huge thank you to everyone that's given time to our club this season. We are also hosting the preliminary final this year so there will still be a bit to do there. We have a couple of milestones to celebrate – Katherine Murdoch played her 200th game for Imperials last week, she is a relentless defender with a wealth of knowledge and gives a lot to our club. She is also a current member of our committee. Congratulations Kat! Crystal Berling plays her 100th game today – she has featured in the A grade side for many years now and is an incredibly smart and skilled defender, she is also incredibly versatile and can stand up well in goals also. Congratulations Crystal! Olivia Bolt has been named in The Advertiser's Top 20 Country Netball Legends of South Australia. A huge achievement and very well deserved. We would also like to give a shout out to Jervois' Nicky Smith who was also named in the list. Congratulations ladies! As we head into finals, we are very excited about the club's success so far, at this stage it looks like the following grades will make it to the finals series: A Grade, A Reserves, B Grade, B Reserves, Intermediate 1, Intermediate 2, Intermediate 3, Junior 1, Junior 2, Sub Junior 1, Sub Junior 2 and Sub Junior 3 (some grades pending today's results). No matter what we are all so proud. If you are playing your last game of the season today, be sure to go out and have fun – that is what netball is all about.

Let's go out and have a great day of netball!

Let's go you Blues!!
