Blues News headquarters is in repair this week, Monday morning saw the Club Captain in Louis DeMichele booting the front door off the hinges, starting flipping tables and demanding that he be congratulated on his 150th after we missed it in last weeks edition. The last I saw of him, Louis was walking out of the office with our fridge over his shoulder yelling "Ill give it back when you do what's right." A bold move by DeMichele, but one that's worked We would like to congratulate future life member Louis DeMichele on a cracking 150 games for the club, a true servant of the club, Premiership player and Premiership Assistant coach, well done Lou, please return the fridge. It's a good match up in the A-Grade this week as we welcome the 3rd place Meningie The bears have had a lot of players return this year adding the depth required to be a premiership contender. A great chance for Scott and the boys to kick a game clear of the competition on their hunt for top spot.

Tom and the 2s boys bounced back hard last week, putting their only loss behind them this year in a dominating performance over Ramblers. What a great year for our reserves, playing an fast paced brand of footy with touches of class all over the park. The journey continues this week, sitting just 8 goals shy of 1000, club legend Brad Shiel has kicked 24 goals in just his 5 games this season. Get around him as he looks to become the first in double blue to kick a thou.

Go you Blues!!!!

Getting to know... Clint De Michele

Teammate you avoid when doing pairs wrestling at training: Ryan Farnham

What do you get up to during Off-season:

Unpaid electrical work for friends drinking beer and activities involving water.

You can choose any past or present footballer to kick a goal after the siren to win a GF, who are you choosing?

Brad Shiel

Teammate most likely to check themselves out in the mirror pregame?

Angus day hair, face, then muscles

Something the blues supporters don't know about you?

I was born with a rare condition that where the muscles in my face don't work and it makes it difficult for me to smile.

Best quote:

friends are like stars you don't always get to see them but they are always there. If you had your own entrance music, what song would play when you walked in? I'm Too Sexy" by Right Said Fred. Spirit animal and why: Silver back Gorilla, chunky and chill Who's your RMFL hero:

Ash Temby the all time Goat

Mitch's Musing

Should be a belter this one. Predicted good weather. I'm forecasting big Jon to kick 8. Think it's election day. Libs probably go round again there. If our boys can copy Scomo's tackling technique we'll be good for another win. Good to see Djokovic back at the top of his game winning the Italian open. Finally that vaccine nonsense has blown over. Time for the Crows to turn things around and have another win. Bring back the power stance of 2017.

Heln Needed....

To all families and friends of Imps, the club desperately needs people to help with the BBQ shed please, otherwise we might not be able to run it. We need someone to oversee the roster and the running of the BBQ shed. We need people to supervise a shift whether it is 1 shift or a couple that would be greatly appreciated. If you see "1 person needed" on the roster reminders. even if you could spare an hour to help that would be fantastic!!! We desperately need help in the 3 to 5 timeslot. So if you and a couple of mates would like to do 1 shift at that time please let us know what week you'd like to do,

Colts Corner

Netball News

Today we welcome the Meningie Netball Club to our courts for Round 8.

With several grades not having matches today there are several game time changes as follows.

At 9am we have Sub Junior 2, at 10.15am we have Sub Junior 1 and Sub Junior 3, at 11.30am is Junior 1 and Inter 2, B Grade plays at 12.45pm and A Reserves and B Reserves play at 2pm. Be sure to get over to the courts and cheer on our Blue girls.

Our B Grade, C Grade, Inter 1 and Inter 2 teams have been busy with a couple of mid-week games too so keep an eye out for when those matches are so you can head out and cheer our girls on there too.

This week is volunteers week so it's a great opportunity to say a huge thank you to all of our wonderful volunteers that help make the netball club go around. Many wouldn't realise how much hard work there is done behind the scenes to get our girls out on court each week so to every one that has volunteered and will volunteer this season a HUGE THANK YOU!

The netball club is cooking home teas this evening so stick around for steak or chicken with potato bake and salad or nuggets and chips for the kids with dessert to follow.

Let's have a great day of netball, let's go vou Blues!!!!
