This week we welcome Taillem Bend to Johnston park in what is a very special day for both clubs. It's a big day where we come together and remember two beautiful girls taken in separate tragic road accidents. The Leahy Kneebone Cup is a time we can all reflect on how fragile and precious life is and a reminder that we all need to take special care on the roads. It's a top of the table clash in the A-grade this week, both clubs are coming in undefeated and will be hoping to keep it this way. Taillem bend have had a great start to the season, but this has come without a challenge thus far, if they wish to continue their winning ways they will need to dig deep to try and overcome the red hot Blues. Scott and the boys are hoping to continue their flawless run this week with their biggest challenge to date this year. The Leahy Kneebone cup always brings out the best game between the two sides and you'd expect nothing less this year as they battle to see who will hold top spot on the ladder.

The Reserves got their 1st win of the season last week as they got over the line by 113 points. With their tails up after last weeks performance the boys will need to get back to business and prepare for a big game this week. Taillem will be a tough opponent in what is also looking to be a close game.

Today is also a day to honour and remember our ANZACS and all service men/women. Today lets enjoy some great games of Footy and Netball played with the ANZAC spirit that we all love and respect.

Netball News

Today we welcome Taillem Bend to our home courts for what is expected to be a great day of netball in the Leahy Knee-bone Cup round. It is a day to reflect and remember two beautiful young ladies that tragically lost their lives in car accidents and to always offer support and love to their families and friends. It serves as a strong reminder to always be safe on the roads. There will be ribbons and pins available to purchase at the netball canteen with all funds raised to go to Beyond Blue as the mutually nominated charity by both families.

Today is also an opportunity to pay respect to our ANZACS and all servicemen and women. In today's A Grade match a player that shows the ANZAC spirit will be awarded the honour of the ANZAC medal. This will certainly be a great game to watch and we hope all players across all games strive to play with this spirit.

We are expecting to see a number of hotly contested games today with many grades from both sides featuring in the top 4 on the ladders. One to certainty watch will be the B Reserves match at 2pm with the Eagles currently sitting top, with the Blues in second and neither side have lost a game yet. It will be a great game with both sides looking to keep their undefeated streak alive.

No doubt whatever time you do head over to the courts there will be some excellent netball on display so be sure to head over at any point and cheer on our Blue girls.

Stick around the club tonight for a great night at the Junior Disco, it's always great fun. There will be roast beef and veggies for the adults and a choice of hotdogs and chips or nuggets and chips for the kids.

Have a great day everyone, play hard, cheer loud.

Let's go you Blues!
